PROJECTS

Next.js Blog Platform: A Pixel-Perfect, Modern Experience ↗

Feb 2025 - Present

Built with Next.js, this blog platform offers a clean, responsive design inspired by (dev.to). It features a pixel-perfect frontend, smooth performance, and seamless social logins for easy access. Currently, I'm working on adding more features to transform it into a full-stack blog application, with backend integration, content management, and more. Enjoy a fast, mobile-friendly experience with modern web technologies, and the flexibility to scale as the project evolves.
